Scope

The Bylaw and Licensing Services Division has a regular full-time job opportunity at the Surrey Animal Resource Centre for an Animal Welfare Attendant. As an Animal Welfare Attendant, you are responsible for providing a high standard of animal welfare and behavioural support for a variety of species. In addition, you will be assisting in developing, implementing, and supporting training for staff, volunteers and the community. This role requires the building and fostering of professional relationships with both internal and external stakeholders.

Responsibilities

- Evaluate animals to determine safety for handling requirements, behavioural needs and pathway options
- Assist in the development and implementation of animal welfare and enrichment programs
- Provide training and ongoing coaching for staff and volunteers
- Offer pre and post-adoption consultations for animals needing behaviour and training support
- Assist in developing written materials (protocols, spreadsheets, presentations, etc.)
- Cultivate and foster partnerships with other organizations for placement and intake options
- Perform other related duties as required

Qualifications

- Completion of Grade 12 supplemented with completion of courses in Animal Care
- A minimum of two years of related experience in sheltering or working with animals
- Strong presentation skills and supervisory experience are an asset
- Preferred qualification: KPA, CPDT-KA, CTC, IAABC Supporting Membership
- Valid BC Driver's License with safe driving history
